

DUTCH NOTE GIVES RELIEF

MANY ALLIED NEWSPAPERS PLEASED AT DODGING TRIAL

Return of Holland to Surrender Former Emperor Received With Varying Feelings.

PARIS, Jan. 24.—Although already discounted, the refusal of Holland to surrender former Emperor William, of Germany, to the allies, has been given a mixed reception by the newspapers here. Writing in the Echo de Paris, "Petrinax" says he regards the punishment of Count Holzeborn as a question of sentiment.

All things considered, he continues, "the only thing remaining for us to do is to come to an understanding with Holland on the conditions surrounding the internment of the former Emperor, in which some provision for allied surveillance might be made. Undoubtedly, if William, to relieve Holland of embarrassment, decided to cross into Germany, the aspect of the question would change, but we are not the year for such a move."

The Journal says the affair has become a purely political one, and it is for the allied governments to examine the Dutch answer, and decide upon the next course to take.

Gustave Hervé, editor of La Victoire, thinks, on the whole, it will be better for the Kaiser to stop where he is.

If Napoleon had been allowed to die of cancer, the legend of his heroic legend perhaps would have been wings," he declares.

The Petit Parisien goes to the other extreme, saying the right of asylum is only entitled to respect if the person sheltered is himself worthy of respect, and such is not the case here.

The newspaper adds its opinion that the Dutch decision will relieve the powers of a very annoying case and it thinks that "while the refusal may be accepted externally with indifference it will be received inwardly with gratitude."

SAVES BEING RIDICULOUS, SAYS LIVERPOOL NEWSPAPER

LIVERPOOL, Jan. 24.—The action of Holland in refusing to surrender former Emperor William saves the allies "from appearing ridiculous in the eyes of the world," says the Post today in its editorial comment.

They certainly would have appeared so if the former Emperor had been handed to them and the trial had been proceeded with, the newspaper adds.

"This country," it remarks, "which was promised the very doubtful honor of being the scene of the trial, may well be grateful to Holland for insisting upon her indubitable rights," the Post writes. "The trial would have been little better than a travesty, and we may be thankful at being saved from it."

NEW YORK SOCIALIST CASE NOT LIKE THAT OF BERGER

Representative Dillinger Says Assembly's Action Is Most Unlucky

WASHINGTON, Jan. 24.—Characterizing the action of the New York assembly in passing five Socialist members of their seats as "a most unhandy proceeding," Representative Dillinger, Republican, Massachusetts, chairman of the Special Elections committee, in a statement to the House declared there was no similarity between the case of these five men and that of Victor L. Berger, Milwaukee Socialist, twice denied a seat in the House.

"If it can be shown that these five men were guilty of having aided or comforted the enemy, as did their chief, Victor L. Berger, justice would be done," he said. "If they committed an overt act of disloyalty or in any way aided the enemy, they should be expelled from the House. But these men have been charged with no such offense and in the resolution suspending them, they are merely affirmed to be members of the Socialist party, and to have subscribed to the Socialist platform."

TESTIFY AGAINST NAVY

NEWPORT WITNESSES HEARD BY COMMITTEE

Alleged Nameless Practices Were Indulged In by "Vice Squad" in Rhode Island

NEWPORT, R. I., Jan. 24.—The Rev. J. Howard Downing, pastor of St. George's Episcopal Church here, testifying before a naval board of inquiry today, said he was convinced of the practice of "certain deleterious and vicious methods" by the navy, in attempts to uncover conditions of vice in this city.

He said he did not "at first believe that the Navy Department would sanction such methods," but that he did believe it now.

When asked by the judge advocate of the court, Ensign Henry I. Hyman, "on what do you base your statement," the witness replied: "A letter from Secretary Daniels addressed to Bishop Perry (Rev. James C. Wolf) Episcopal Bishop of Rhode Island."

Mr. Downing said this letter was sent last September, as nearly as he could recall.

The witness added later that he had no personal knowledge of conditions outside of the court records in the case of Rev. Samuel N. Kent, "I saw the operators and the sailors all cared to have to do with them," he said.

The Rev. C. P. Christopher, of the Second Baptist Church, Newport, had previously testified that he also had no personal knowledge of the alleged conditions.

Arthur L. Fairbrother, a representative of the Providence Journal, read a statement before the committee detailing the alleged actions. He quoted testimony from naval courts-martial at the Newport training station and parts of the court records of the State and Federal trials of the Rev. Samuel Kent, of Newport, who was acquitted on charges based on information obtained by the navy.

The letter from Secretary Daniels to Bishop Perry of Rhode Island, referred to in the testimony before the naval board of inquiry today was dated September 27, 1919. Bishop Perry made a personal call upon Secretary Daniels September 22, and in the course of the conversation he stated the conditions existing and asked that steps be taken to correct them.

Secretary Daniels' letter in reply said: "In reply to the request which you made to me in person during your recent visit to Washington, I have to reply that I have gone carefully over the evidence in the case and find myself unable to comply with your request, as the matter of further action by the Navy Department is still pending."
